Scripture Eph 6:4

Scripture Eph 6:4

Summary This sermon will identify “authoritarian” and “neglecting-rejecting” styles of parenting (as called by child-development specialists) as out of alignment with Jesus’s vision for the home and family, as noted in Eph 6:4. Christian parents should not be harsh toward their children, avoid threatenings, and not administer abusive forms of discipline to correct them, all of which provoke children to anger, sin, and rebellion. This kind of parenting is not in harmony with the character and behavior of Jesus and, thus, unfit for a Christian home.

Summary This sermon will identify the “authoritative” style of parenting (as called by child-development specialists) that is characterized by high structure/discipline and high nurturance/love/affection fits the biblical ideal for parenting. The two important tools for parenting that Paul highlighted in Eph 6:4 are (1) training and (2) teaching. We will explore the nature of these two tools and how they can be effectively implemented in the home by Christian parents so that their children will grow up to love and respect their parents and the Lord.

Scripture	Eph 6:5-8	Scripture	Eph 6:5-8
Summary	This sermon begins a two-part sub-series on the section of Paul’s household code regarding the relationship of slaves and masters. It will discuss the practices of first-century institution of slavery in the Greco-Roman world and condemn any and all forms of slavery that still exist in our world today, based on biblical ethical trajectory. Then the sermons of this two-part sub-series will apply the principles for master-slave relationships expressed in Eph 6:5-9 to our modern context of employer-employee relationships. This sermon will focus upon the sincere obedience and hard work that good employees should offer their employers and see said service as actually rendering service to God. The bane of bosses is lazy employees who offer eye-service instead of genuine devotion and excellence in their work.

Summary	This sermon finishes the two-part sub-series referenced above. It will discuss how employers should properly treat their employees in light of the fact that they too have a boss, God Almighty, who will hold them accountable in judgment for their actions toward their employees. As such, employers should treat their employees with equity, fairness, and justice. They should find other ways of motivating employees for excellence in their work, other than punitive measures, such as threatening and harsh disciplinary action.

Summary	We are living in the midst of a cosmic war between unseen spiritual forces of good and evil. We have been drawn into this conflict, as soldiers in the army of God, fighting for the triumph of good in the cosmos. As such, it is imperative that we are properly equipped for battle with the much needed defensive pieces of armor and offensive weaponry of spiritual warfare—the whole armor of God. This sermon will explore the functions of the various parts of the armor of God in the context of first-century Roman armory and weaponry in order to understand the importance of each one in this great controversy.
Hymns	Hymns with the theme of battle would be very appropriate for matching the theme of this sermon. Here are some possibilities. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Onward, Christian Soldiers! #612</li> <li>• A Mighty Fortress #506</li> <li>• Sound the Battle Cry #614</li> <li>• Stand Up! Stand Up for Jesus! #618</li> <li>• Faith is the Victory #608</li> <li>• The Strifes is O'er #172</li> <li>• Mine Eyes Have Seen the Glory #647</li> </ul>

These are not in our hymnal but they are great songs. the first one is a modern hymn. The second is an older but still newer song. The lyrics are powerful and fitting for this sermon series:

Scripture	Eph 6:21-24	Scripture Eph 6:21-24
Summary	This sermon will discuss some of the historical background of Paul’s final greetings to the church in ancient Ephesus, concerning the sending of Tychicus (Acts 20:4; Col 4:7; 2 Tim 4:2; Titus 3:12). However, the majority of the sermon will focus on the final benediction of vv. 23-24. Paul prayed for four primary virtues to be present in the church: (1) peace, (2) love, (3) faith, and (4) grace. Fascinatingly, he mentioned “love” three times in these two verses, placing greater emphasis on this virtue above the rest (consistent with his writings elsewhere; e.g., 1 Cor 13:13). God wants his church to be filled with peace, grace, and especially love from the Father and the Son by faith. This will empower the church to love our Lord Jesus Christ, as well as to love others in the church.
